Cinderella • Worksheet

Writing activity: Cinderella and the Prince have asked you to design their wedding invitations. Using the space below, write all the information you think they need (e.g. whose wedding, time, place, dress code). Make the invitation look grand and exciting, with fancy writing and perhaps pictures or patterns too.

Now make a list of all the people you think should be invited to the wedding (they don't all have to be characters from the story).
